

Travelscoop

- Home
- Inbound
- Contact Us
- Our Crew
- About Us
- Archives
- Specials

Treetops Lodge New Zealand Wins Major Awards

28 August 2007, 10:58 am Accommodation

Rotorua's Treetops & Wilderness Estate is New Zealand's #1 Regional Property, as announced at the 2007 HM Awards last week in Sydney, Australia. Hosted and presented by leading industry magazine HM (Hotel & Accommodation Management), Treetops led 7 other luxury New Zealand hotels to win the award.

The HM Awards is recognized as the leading award-giving body for the accommodation industry in Australia, New Zealand and South Pacific.

"This year's HM Award results embrace our desire to provide a seamless wilderness experience to those who visit Treetops Lodge & Wilderness Estate," said Treetops owner John Sax. "Such sincerity and enjoyment is delivered by our staff at Treetops to every guest we receive, so a special thanks to all the judges who recognized their efforts" John added.

Treetops Lodge & Wilderness Estate is a member of Small Luxury Hotels of the World, which also collected the HM Hotel Brand Management Company award for 2007.

A record number of entries were received in this year's HM Awards, with 30 leading travel writers and industry leaders deciding on the property categories. For more information on the HM Awards 2007, visit their website at www.hmawards.com.au.

Finalist, Virtuoso's 'Best of the Best' Environment Award

Leading international travel network Virtuoso also named Treetops as finalist in the environment-friendly luxury hotel category at its annual 'Best of the Best' awards, announced in Las Vegas last week.

"Treetops is committed to its environmental efforts, from preserving natural surroundings, energy conservation, recycling, minimizing wildlife disturbance and promoting conservation. We would like to thank Virtuoso for this recognition, and hope that our efforts will serve as an example to other organizations building their own green initiatives," John said.

Award-winning Treetops Lodge & Wilderness Estate is set in 2,500 acres of native forestry and located in the heart of New Zealand's world famous therapeutic thermal region and trout fishing capital, Rotorua. Visit Treetops' website at www.treetops.co.nz.

For New Zealand accommodation bookings or further information contact TravelCafe or call us on 0800 438 688.